Generating Text

In this assignment you will create a table named bigtext with a single TEXT column named content. Insert 100000 records with numbers starting at 100000 and going through 199999 into the table as shown below:

```
This is record number 100000 of quite a few text records.
This is record number 100001 of quite a few text records.
This is record number 199998 of quite a few text records.
This is record number 199999 of quite a few text records.
